

Good News!

The 7th annual JesusFest is coming to downtown Rockville on Saturday, July 12 from 12 to 6 pm

SCARLET F* A * D * E

At 12:00, Rev. Ray Dupere, Pastor of Union Congregational Church, will open the celebration and Scarlet Fade from Bristol will perform Christian youth-oriented alternative/indie music. Followed by a gospel message by Rev. Ricky Jakubowski, Youth Pastor at Crossroads Community Church in Vernon.

At 1:40 pm, Songs of Solomon from Woodstock, New York will perform Christian reggae music followed by a gospel message by Rev. Jeff Roman, Pastor of First Baptist Church of Tolland.

EAST OF NASHVILLE

At 3:20 pm, East of Nashville of Enfield will perform Christian blue grass and southern gospel followed by a gospel message by Rev. Barry Andrusik, Pastor of Enfield Community Church and the new Tolland Community Church.

At 5 pm, Selfish Steam of Stafford Springs will perform Christian rock followed by a gospel message and closing remarks by JesusFest Founder and Chairman Drew Crandall, President of Northeast Christians At Work in Vernon.

This year's festival will be held RAIN OR SHINE inside Union Church, 3 Elm Street in downtown Rockville. This historic 1800s structure has a beautiful sanctuary that seats 600. We'll also have a prayer room, displays by churches and ministries, face-painting and balloon art for kids, and a used Christian book/music area.
